Morgan Law LLC Celebrates Five Years Providing Corporate and Real Estate Legal Services to South Jersey

February 4, 2020 – Marlton, NJ – Morgan Law LLC is pleased to celebrate five (5) years providing legal services to businesses and individuals throughout the South Jersey community. Founded and led by Medford resident, Kenneth Morgan, Esquire, the boutique law firm concentrates in the areas of transactional real estate and business counseling. The firm works on behalf of borrowers, landlords and tenants who are acquiring, financing and leasing commercial real estate, as well as assists with residential real estate matters. In addition, Morgan Law LLC represents buyers and sellers of assets in diverse businesses and provides counsel on matters that include business formation, entity governance documents, succession planning, acquisitions and buyouts, opinion letters and commercial contracts.

"When I first launched the firm in 2015, I had set pragmatic goals for year one and year two, and here we are celebrating five years. I truly appreciate our clients' trust and confidence," says Morgan, who is a strong supporter of the community both professionally and personally, including being a board member of the Animal Welfare Association in Voorhees and Businesses Committed to South Jersey (BCSJ). "Having grown up in South Jersey, I really enjoy being part of its growth and helping clients achieve their goals. Small to midsize businesses make up a big part of the community's economy and commercial real estate activity is strong."
